Rotary in Paris....

We had a low attendance at this week's meeting – only 10 of us were there to enjoy lunch. George was off in Paris, (that's George in the photo at a local Paris Rotary Club!) Lisa was on jury duty (and luckily didn't get selected!), Jim had chauffeuring duty for Carol and Eric had a business meeting to attend. However, it gave us a welcomed chance to mix and talk to each other – and discuss a few outstanding items.

The meeting was briefly interrupted to propose a motion (which was approved by the board members present) to allow a maximum budget of $1,000 for back packs and supplies for the new kindergartners at Hoover School. Elisabeth gave us a 2-minute report on her weekend visit to Tecate with members of the Villa Park club. There is another Tecate event coming up soon – a one-day paella and wine festival which is the Tecate clubs main fundraiser. Our members are invited and welcome to attend and Villa Park club members will be there also.
